This study guide has been created by and is the property of Bruce B. Butgereit & Company – Civil War Presentations, and is provided for sharing the history of the Civil War in a more detailed look. Some of the information included is covered in our “hands-on” living history program, but much is not. This study guide can be used to offer directions for further research or projects; create other questions; or just for the enjoyment of reading. We trust you enjoy it. Copies can be made for use and distribution within the class.
