

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PAGE	TITLE
1	Michigan in the Civil War
2	Grand Rapids Own Regiment-History of Third Michigan Volunteer Infantry (1861)
3-4	Where the Third Saw Action
5	Which War? (Various titles given the War)
5	Slavery (History and Issues)
6	Charles Pinckney and Frederick Douglass
7	Dred Scott Decision
8	President Lincoln and Slavery
9	After the War – Politics and the Black Man
10	Was the Reason Slavery? (Was slavery the reason the War began?)
10	Why Were They Fighting? (What did the soldiers of both sides think)
11	Who Were the Soldiers? (What type of man was the soldier?)
11	Annie Etheridge
12	Who are These Other Guys?
13	How Young They Were! (Ages of the Northern soldiers)
14 -15	What Did You Say? (Language or "slang" of the Northern soldier)
16	Quartermaster Department - Let's Eat! (Army foods)
17	A Soldier's Uniform (What did the soldier wear?)
18	A Soldier's Footwear (A soldier's shoes)
18	A Soldier's Equipment or Accouterments (A soldier's gear)
19	Quartermaster Department – What a soldier's equipment and clothing cost
20	What Did They Fight With? (Civil War weapons)
19	Hotel "Dame Nature" (Sleeping as a Soldier)
20	The Last of the Old-Fashioned - the First of the Modern Wars (technological advances of warfare)
20	Horses Kept the War Alive! (Number of horses and mules used)
21	The Price in Blood! (Dead, wounded, or missing)
22	Military Intelligence in the Civil War
23-24	Music, Music! (Civil War songs)
24	Could I Have This Dance? (Civil War dances)
25	Ladies' Clothing Fashions (What did they wear?)
26	Dresses for Ladies
26	Bloomers Weren't Underwear!
27	Ladies' Fashion Accessories
27	Bonnets, Hats and Hairstyles
27	The Hoop Skirt
28	How Fashionable was Fashion?
28	Victorian Jewelry
29	Language of the Fan
30-32	How Quilting in America Reflects Women's Roles
33	The Many Roles of Civil War Women (and a few brief biographical paragraphs)
34-36	Some Hospital History & Medical Firsts
37	Third Michigan Volunteer Infantry, Co. K, Present (Who we are today)
38-41	Recommended books (Books we like)
42	Of Interest To Teachers (History of early Grand Rapids schools guaranteed to cause a teacher to never say, "Oh! For the good old days!")